

Bellville Austin
Texas July 22/91

O. C. Bosbyshell Esq
Brk.

I have this day sent you per Express a Copy which I wish to dispose of. You will please examine same and make ^{an} offer if you can possibly use it.

I am recommended to you by your nephew Mr Marshall of Fort National Rank Bellville
an early reply will oblige
Your Obedient Servant
Hiram Coker

Bellville Texas.

July 22. 1891

Amram Cohen

Sends by Express certain Coin to be disposed of - two-third thaler of the City of Magdeburg - Germany.

Obv. A Man in armor, upon the City wall; the buildings of the city in the back ground.

Legend - "MONETA NOV. CIV. MAG-DEBURG. 1674."

Rev. "VERB. DOMINI MANETIN
ÆTERN." $\left(\frac{2}{3}\right)$ "all within a palm and oak wreath.

The face value of the coin was about 46 sh.

Fines from 650 to 450.

I do not think the market value would be over 1 or 2 dollars.

M. Q.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 172

[Abstract:] Sends by express certain coin to be disposed of.

Bellville, Austin Co., Texas

July 22, 1891

O.C. Bosbyshell, Esq.

Dr. Sir

I have this day sent you per express a coin of which I wish to dispose of. You will please examine same and make me an offer if you can possibly use it.

I am recommended to you per your nephew Wm. Marshall of Fort National Rank Belleville. An early reply will oblige.

Your obedient servant
Hiram Cohen

[Attached note:]

Two-third thaler of the City of Magdebury – Germany.

Obv. a man in armor, upon the city wall; the buildings of the city in the back ground.

Legend – “MONETA NOV. CIV. MAGDEBURG. 1674.”

Rev. “VERB. DOMINI MANETIN AETERN.” 2/3 “ all within a palm and oak wreath.

The face value of the coin was about 46 cents.

Fineness from 650 to 750.

I do not think the market value should be over 1 or 2 dollars.

MC.